APPLICANT'S COMMENTS ON EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

In the Reasons for Allowance section of the latest office Action, the Examiner recited portions from the independent claims and stated that the prior art did not show the recited elements, in addition to the other elements of the claims, as a whole. The applicants note that it is a well known tenet of patent law that patent claims are read as a whole, rather than element by element. Therefore, the patentability of the claims is not necessarily based on only the claim elements that the Examiner noted, but rather, to the language of the claims themselves, in their entirety.
